Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.G.VEERA REDDY

Counsel for the Respondent No.: SMT.KAVITHA GOTTIPATI

The Court made the following :

ORDER:

It is the case of the petitioner that himself and 55 others were identified as sbeneficiaries of Karamalivalipalli, Silk Weaving Units and each of the persons were granted a loan of Rs.8,000/- and Rs.5000 /- as IRDP. Pursuant thereto, on 30.11.1995, the 2nd respondent disbursed Rs.4000/- loan IRDP and the loan was not disbursed. On representation, the District Collector by his proceedings dated 31.12.1998 directed the Project Director to make enquiry and the enquiry culminated into the result that the entire amount was paid to the beneficiaries, which is not correct, but the whole transaction is on paper. It is further averred that after the Project Manager passed the order dated 8.2.1999, the second respondent was directed by the District Co-Operative Central Bank, Cddapah to recover the subsidy amount given to the beneficiaries. Therefore, the petitioner came up with this writ petition.

Rule Nisi was issued as long back as on 17.3.1999 and no interim direction was issued. Therefore, by afflux of time, the writ petition has become infructuous. Consequently, the writ petition fails and is accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.
